

EEAC Webinar:

2026: Times of political uncertainty - What will be the new normal?

Key takeaways from the webinar:

- In today's political landscape, we are witnessing a new era of instrumentalization of economic, military and technological coercion
- Emergence of politically driven economic nationalism and technological rivalry
- New dependencies and alliances are forming, with a global trend toward diversifying partners
- Sustainability is not separate from geopolitics; it is a way of addressing its challenges and economic impacts
